CATEGORY AWARDS

The judging process begins by jurying the photos. Those photos that make it through the jurying process are then judged and scored on each of the following areas: Technical Quality, Composition, Impact, Originality, and Artistic Appeal. Each juried photo is given 1-10 points in each of the 4 areas with a possible top score of 40 points from each judge resulting in a possible top score of 120 points. The judge's decisions are final.

Scores are recorded on a spreadsheet, totaled and sorted to reflect the best scores within each category. Any resulting ties are re-scored by the judges. Since the winning photos are determined ahead of time by scores, we are able to print them in our show program for your enjoyment.

SPECIALTY AWARDS

These are awards sponsored by individuals and groups that have a 'special' interest in the subject; which they have chosen to issue an award. Some sponsors pick their winner, but others choose to have a judge pick the winner. Prizes in this area include ribbons, cash awards, and gift certificates.

If you are interested in sponsoring an award; have any comments and/or suggestions about these awards; please see us at the desk or visit our website at www.wideanglephotoclub.org.

2020 POWER OF PHOTOGRAPHY JUDGES

KEVIN HONG

Kevin Hong has spent decades developing his skills in graphic design, photography, and videography. Today he is a professional storyteller who captures moments and documents significant events through the lens of his camera, leveraging its reach and impact through social media. Kevin uses his passion for storytelling to help businesses create fun marketing campaigns and strategies to grow their enterprises—to tell their stories.

Kevin has a passion for making sure his clients have an enjoyable experience while working with him. Throughout his career as a photographer he has spent his time not only on the ground, but also in the air as a specialist in aviation photography. He works with a wide array of people in the aviation industry to showcase pilots and their aircraft, as well as veterans who have fought wars and lived to share their stories.

Crossing the Atlantic Ocean, Kevin has documented large events, including the 75th anniversary of World War II's D-Day invasion in Normandy, France. Through social media he was able to show people from around the world events that were taking place, including when a 94-year-old veteran parachuted from an airplane for the first time since World War II—some seven decades earlier. His efforts gave people on the opposite side of the globe an opportunity to see historic events taking place in real time.

His diverse skill set allows Kevin to fulfill clients' needs not just in social media, but also in showcasing their companies, and marketing their products and services, around the world.

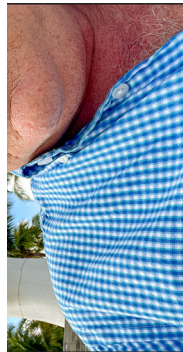

STEPHEN SAVAGE

Stephen Savage graduated from George Washington University with a BA in Art History, and earned a Master of Liberal Arts from Spring Hill College, with a concentration in Fine Art Photography.

As an art educator, Savage taught Photography, Photojournalism, and Art History at Spring Hill College for 20 years, and continues to teach photography at the Eastern Shore Art Center where he has been teaching for 23 years.

LORELEI WHITE

Award winning portrait photographer, Lorelei White, is the owner and operator of Pixl Photography. She has over 20 years experience and training in the art of photography, specializing in modern female portraiture. Beyond women's portraiture, she has experience with family and children's photography and uses an extensive high-art wardrobe when creating her art.

Lorelei started her adventure in photography as a child, running around with a 35mm camera. She was inspired by her grandfather, an avid amateur photographer, and the passion to capture her experiences never faded.

After establishing a career with the US Air Force she spent a seven-year tour documenting my travels, friends, and cherished moments in time. Her passion for photography continued to grow as she refined her technique, until PixL-Photography was established in 2014.

WHETHER IT IS TAKING PHOTOS OF FAMILIES, CHILDREN, BUSINESS PROFESSIONALS, OR A BEAUTIFUL SUNSET OVER THE OCEAN; PRODUCING BEAUTIFUL IMAGES IS MY PASSION.

All of her work is customized for clients and working with clients to come up with creative sessions that are uniquely their own. She has the experience and the lighting to provide the absolute best image possible.
